3. Barry Eidlin event

Neil shared brief event details on the education event scheduled for April 1 with Dr. Eidlin, he plans to present on the political strategy behind building power ahead of the 2026 Bargaining. The event is a framework for the bargaining happening for CAPE in June. Gen offered to facilitate if need be.

4. AI Series

It was discussed that Canadians are still waiting for an AI strategy/presentation from GC. AI tools have been encouraged to be used in certain offices. The group is trying to put together a two-part education series in late spring. The first part surrounding political ethical implications related to AI, ownership, environmental issues. As The carney plan connecting to finding efficiencies, give an updated status on that. The second panel would be on how it is affecting our workplace and how to fight back, this could feed into the CAPE June bargaining. The group also discussed their personal experience with AI in the workplace. The group was encouraged to suggest speakers or topics to the chairs, Neil and Doug.

5. Round table.

Final round of revision on CAPE for Palestine presentation was completed by Romney, and he was hoping to start presenting it to CAPE members by May.
